Tuesday 5th March at 7.30pm – Whist Drive

I am sure there are many people who would like to play Whist but do not know how, so this first evening will be mainly to help beginners.

However, we need ALL experienced players to come too so you can pass on your knowledge to others, hopefully we can then put on regular Whist Drive evenings. £2 pp plus a raffle, BYO refreshments & the kitchen will be open to make tea/coffee.

Maybe someone would like to use the hall for similar events such as Bridge or Dominoes. There is a full set of Bingo equipment also available if anyone would like to start this up. The Hall is there to be used as your community centre.

Tuesday 19th March at 7:30pm – Ladies Group

This month it's 'Keeping Safe from Scammers' by PC SO Amie Bartlett. 16th April, Long Mountain Flowers. £3 for non-members includes refreshments.

Thursday 21st March at 7:30pm – Open Meeting

The Open Meeting is for everyone to find out how the Hall is managing and provide new suggestions for its continued use. Please support the Hall, it is yours.

The Quiz Night in January was its usual success. This next Quiz will be the usual fun night of quiz, games, music and social all for £2 pp plus a raffle. Contact Lynne if you would like to book a table (max of 6 per table) or just turn up and join in. People also welcome to come just for the social and watch the antics. As always - BYO refreshments.

At the January coffee morning the final Llandyssil village lottery was drawn. 1st prize Ray Jones: 2nd prize Myra Hamer: 3rd prize Dora Hughes

Côr Trefaldwyn is a choir that's based in and around Montgomery (clue is the name). However, it's more than just a group of people singing, and it's anything but formal.

We meet on Wednesdays at 8-9.15(ish)pm, usually in St Nicholas's Church, sometimes in The Dragon (everybody needs a break now and again). We learn songs from a hugely diverse range of styles and genres, we have lots of laughs too. In fact, I'm not quite sure which we do more of.

Occasionally we put on concerts, often with Monty Folk, combining traditional world music with arrangements of strange and ancient things – some familiar, some not so. Our concerts are very informal & include elements of dance and audience participation.

The musical side of things is run by me, I write and arrange the music to fit the singers we have, not ones we wished we had. Not everybody reads music, and many have only a passing acquaintance with the notes on the page. We help each other, we look after each other, we care for each other.

We already have Llandyssil-connected singers in the choir, Jenny Brignell-Thorpe & Rev Paulette Gower, and we would warmly welcome more (of any gender) especially as we will be giving a concert with Monty Folk at St Tyssil's on 18 May, as part of a weekend of Peter Warlock events.

Come and give it a go – you might be surprised – or ask us if you want to know more. You can get me at ian@morganwilliams.org.uk. Ian Morgan-Williams, Hafgan, Llandyssil
